The district

Klauzál utca runs through the heart of Erzsébetváros, Budapest's 7th District and its historic Jewish Quarter, the liveliest area of the city centre. Klauzál tér and its market hall, Gozsdu udvar, Kazinczy utca and the Dohány Street Synagogue are all within a short walk, and trams 4 and 6 on the Grand Boulevard and metro M2 at Blaha Lujza tér and Astoria connect the street to every university campus.

The building

A 1930s modernist apartment building on Klauzál utca, with the traditional Klauzál Café on the ground floor. Behind the street façade, the flats open onto an inner courtyard lined with wrought-iron galleries and original cement-tile floors. Both studios have their own front door on the gallery.
